

ONLINE RESOURCES FOR OREGON SCHOOLS

Through a partnership with Gale, OSLIS provides reputable, reliable digital content available anytime, anywhere and on any device. Designed for K-12 students and educators, OSLIS integrates information literacy skills with access to licensed periodicals and research databases. OSLIS is a project of the Oregon Association of School Libraries (OASL) and the State Library of Oregon. Because of funding through the Institute of Museum and Library Services (IMLS), these resources are available statewide at no cost to your school or district.
